

WORLD OF RADIO #1049, produced August 30, 2000 by Glenn Hauser

- *Our Sunday evening on WWCN continues UT Monday 0000 but now on 3215
- *RFPI has additional time for Continent of Media, Mon 2200, Tue 0600 and 1400; as well as UT Thu 0130; look for 6970 to come back
- *Big Lots selling Baygen AM/FM/SW for $29.99; 1-800-269-9571
- *Radio Shack DX-375 20-212 devalued to $39.97, but don't get the recommended AC adaptor, instead the regulated 273-1756 or -1654; see Reception Tips on WOR website also for how to disable muting
- *Ostankino TV tower fire in Moscow: BBC Monitoring editorial analysis; temporary TV webcasting is one solution via <http://www.ortv.ru> and <http://www.vesti-rtr.com> and <http://www.atv.ru>
- *Both V. of Russia and VOA give in to government pressure
- *Radio Mari, Yoshkar Ola, Russia heard with local program
- *Radyjo B.A., Belarus, heard on 60m
- *Radio Retro, Metro, seems via former Mayak USB in Belarus
- *Radio Mari and R. Pomorye, Arkhangelsk, heard in England; clips at <http://www.intervalsignals.com>
- *R. Yugoslavia expelled from transmitter site in Bijeljina, Bosnia; RY goes on Russian satellite, webcasting <http://www.radiyu.org> and plans return to SW via some other site; see DXLD 0-104 for much more
- *Anyone can hire time on DTK in Germany; Sept. 6 a children's camp for one hour. Special QSL available; see DXLD 0-105
- *See our website which also includes a newly revised Nets To You: <https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
- *In Midst of WOR 1049, wghauser@hotmail.com or P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA; so little fax it's not worth mentioning the number tho it is still available [1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser]
- *R. Nacional, Malabo, Equatorial Guinea, on an hour later than sked
- *R. Galkaacyo, Somalia on new frequency below 7 MHz hamband, including English; but R. Banaadir now in hamband
- *V. of Turkey just started webcasting, including English at same times as on SW, but posted schedule one hour off: <http://www.trt.net.tr>
- *Israel about to go off DST, but one English moving two hours later; two others about to be webcast
- *Israeli Arabic MW transmitter closed for RF fears, Syria takes freq
- *Arutz 7, Israel moved to former frequency of V. of Peace
- *R. Pakistan starting new separate news channel vs. India on SW
- *Falun Dafa Radio, Chinese cland, heard on new frequency at new time
- *WSHB refuses to give site for Indonesian relay, listed Taiwan, but why is V. of Russia interval signal heard at end?
- *New MW transmitter in Fiji for better outlying coverage
- *One Chilean station inactive, another is back on 6 MHz band
- *R. Union, Peru, out of adjustment on wrong frequency
- *R. Comas, Peru has new variable frequency
- *GBC, V. of Guyana, reactivated on 90m band
- *TIAC R. Fides, Costa Rica has new website <http://www.radiofides.co.cr> showing SW frequency same as WRMI
- *Havana had angry-sounding rap in Spanish
- *Bill Snyder's hurricane frequency list is back: <http://aa6kc.home.mindspring.com/>

*Scream of the Butterfly starts second year on WRMI
*WGTG programming heard inside the 41m band
*American Forces Network widely reported on USB from islands; for the latest check recent DX Listening Digests
*Brass Button Broadcasters is new book about AFRTS, reviewed in amazon.com; see DXLD 0-104
*NPR provides special Labor Day programming including comedy from Imagination Workshop: <http://www.npr.org/programs/specials/laborday/>
*NPR launching two new Sirius satellite channels, NPR Now, and NPR
Talk; new morning show on both aimed at younger audience
*Kansas City loses commercial classical music on FM, moved to AM
*New X-band station from Idaho, KBLI
*Careful with CBC on 6160: both Vancouver and Newfoundland may be 24h
*Propagation outlook from Boulder August 29: flux range 165-185-135
*From super-heated Enid, 101 degrees again today -- I can finally turn on my noisy air conditioner again by concluding World of Radio 1049 with a
*Standard disclaimer

###